

Erin Selby

Erin Selby received her PharmD from Southwestern Oklahoma State University and graduated with a degree specialization in pharmacy leadership, innovation and quality outcomes. As the daughter of two pharmacy owners and the sister of a community pharmacist, Erin has always had a passion for the interests and goals of community pharmacists. She is very interested in the advancement and transformation of independent community pharmacy through enhanced clinical services.