Since this meeting will be held virtually this year, changes to how the fly-in is run necessitates some operational changes.

PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING:

NCPA will be scheduling all the meetings with Congressional offices this year, please do not contact any Congressional offices to request meetings.

NCPA will also be providing the virtual platform for all meetings.

You will receive your schedule of meetings along with instructions on how to join the virtual meetings several days in advance of the virtual fly-in.

You should prepare as if the Congressional office will join the meeting via video, though that is not guaranteed.

NCPA will share your contact information with others participating in your Congressional meetings. This will allow you to facilitate any pre-meeting preparation for your group.
