8:00 p.m. ET – 8:30 p.m. ET - Technology Briefing

Our technology vendor, Advocacy Associates, will provide an overview of the meeting platform and participant dashboard to familiarize registrants with the system prior to their meetings. This session will be recorded and made available on the Fly-In webpage on Friday, April 16.

Monday April 19, 2021

8:00 p.m. ET – 9:00 p.m. ET - Congressional Briefing

NCPA leadership and Advocacy Center staff will provide an update on NCPA advocacy efforts on behalf of independent pharmacies, including efforts to stop the unfair practices of pharmacy benefit managers such as DIR fees, and protect and expand patient access to community pharmacy services. The session will include a discussion of the congressional agenda for 2021 and how NCPA will continue to work on industry priorities to preserve the ability of independent pharmacies to serve their communities.

- Brian Caswell, R.Ph., NCPA President
- Doug Hoey, R.Ph., MBA, NCPA CEO
- Karry LaViolette, NCPA Senior Vice President of Government Affairs and Director of the Advocacy Center
- Adam Harbison, NCPA Director of Congressional Affairs
- Anne Cassity, NCPA Vice President, Federal and State Government Affairs
